"THE COIN MACHINE MERRY-GO-ROUND"

BY BILL GERSH

THE I.E.C. BALLOT

There's no doubt that everyone wants to know how the voting is coming along for the Indoors Entertainment Conference. Well, here's how it looks at this writing: Greatest preference (by a margin of over 50%) is for the 3rd week in January at Chicago. New York received quite a large number of votes. Cleveland and Cincinnati came in for one vote each - even Los Angeles received a vote. Some preferred the 2nd week in January and quite a few the 1st week in February. Of course, the voting is as yet far from over so that changes may come along which will turn everything topside. IF YOU HAVEN'T VOTED AS YET - DO SO NOW- IF YOU HAVE, TURN YOUR BALLOT OVER TO SOME OTHER WELL KNOWN COINMAN (EVEN THO HE MAY NOT AS YET BE A SUBSCRIBER TO THE CASH BOX) AND LET US GET HIS VOTE, TOO. Remember, the more the merrier and the more who attend the more ideas for everyone's good is bound to result. (As Joe Frank of Automatic Sales Company, Nashville, wrote us in a letter that is a masterpiece as to why the Indoors Entertainment Conference should be held, "I have always contended that even if a fellow goes to a crazy asylum and talks to 50 or 100 people - a good idea is bound to show up somewhere".)

SPEAKERS, EXPENSES, PLANS

While we're still on the subject of the Indoors Entertainment Conference we may as well get a few angles ironed out here and now. First of all, we feel we should invite each one of the leading manufacturers to speak to the gathering. Whom do you prefer? As far as expenses of the meeting rooms are concerned whatever hotel we choose will probably furnish these free or at very nominal cost for a guarantee of so many persons checking into the hotel for the meet. Therefore, the expenses are practically nil. The suggestion has been made, and seems to meet with approval, that this meet be conducted on Monday and Tuesday of the chosen week. This will give the attending coinmen time to get back to their work. In addition to the manufacturers as speakers it is also suggested that we have all the leading distributors, jobbers, operators and association heads speak (if they care to). This not only meets with our approval, but, in keeping with the thought back of the Indoors Entertainment Conference (and using the implication of the word "conference" for its broad meaning) we feel that everyone present should exercise that great American privilege and get up and speak on any subject which arises. The suggestion has also been made that all speakers be limited to 5 minutes on the platform. Wm. Rabkin of International Mutoscope Corp., Long Island City, New York, has been recommended as "Chairman Pro-Tem" for this first conference. In short, suggestions and ideas are pouring in at the rate of one per minute. If you have any ideas relative to the Indoors Entertainment Conference - please rush them in now.

A VOTE AGAINST I.E.C.

This week we received our first vote against holding the I.E.C. It came from one of the Northwest's leading distributors. The letter, written by his secretary, advises that this man feels we should not hold this Conference for it would tend to clog our already much clogged transportation system. (We mention this for we feel that our readers should have both sides of the story everytime, wherever and whenever possible.) Now, you may also believe along these lines. If you do - why, let us know. It's important to us all to get both sides of this picture. But, please do remember, we do not expect any 6,000 or 7,000 people to be present as was the figure in former "conventions". This is strictly a quiet and confidential business meet. At the most we believe that there will be about 300 to 400 leaders present. Give this some thought and let us hear from you on this subject.

1,000 BALLOTS FOR FREE

To 1,000 leading firms in this grand country of ours - this past week - The Cash Box, at its own expense, mailed ballots regarding the Indoors Entertainment Conference. We simply inserted the very same frontispiece that appeared on your December 1st issue into an envelope with a letter from ourselves and asked these people, even tho they were not subscribers to The Cash Box, to vote on the I.E.C. for we felt that it was to their interest to know of this meet and we should very much appreciate their opinions. This outside vote (as we prefer to call it) should prove interesting to all subscribers.

THE LEGS. MEET IN '43

A great many state legislatures will be meeting again in '43. What will result? What to do to bring about favorable opinions for those coinmen located in territories where these legislatures will be holding open house. The taxes that have come out of Washington may be giving some of the Legs. a lot of ideas. What to do about this is a real problem for a great many coinmen. It's one of the things that some of the boys want to bring up on the floor at the Indoors Entertainment Conference. Even tho many present will not be from the same territory they still feel that the experience which some of the others may have had will prove of tremendous value - if and when. In short, there are a great many reasons for the enthusiasm now existant for the I.E.C. This is only one of the reasons.

GENIUS WANTED

A few geniuses are wanted by coinmen all over the country. The kind of guys who can show a great many of the men now actively engaged in this industry how to do a little trick or two that will once again make certain types of equipment profitable. For example - counter games. Most men are pretty well stocked with these. And, most of these now come within the $100. tax ruling. Therefore if one of these geniuses will come along and show us how to bring these machines within the $10. classification and yet keep it in the "moneymaking" class, there is no doubt that he will make himself one handsome buck and will win a lot of praise and affection from one helluva lot of guys in this industry. Another little problem is the $5 and $10 pin game. It simply doesn't pay to pack or crate and ship these. And, so few want them - except for parts. Now, there surely is some genius among us who can do a little twist here and there that can turn these machines into some new sort of new style moneymakers again. Paging Mr. Genius - all is forgiven - please come home.

HONORABLE MENTION

This week goes to Jack Moore of Jack Moore & Company, Portland, Oregon. Jack is benefitting this entire industry and certainly doing so unselfishly with his work on the Civil Air Patrol. In fact, Jack has just attained the rank of Captain and is in command at the base in Laredo, Texas. We remember when Jack first became a flying enthusiast. We were very curious about that very expensive and trick wrist-watch he wore when he was here in New York and he explained it to us - but it would take an engineering mind to understand all the gadgets. We even remember Jack at one time inviting us for a little spin (when we met him in Chi) all the way to Portland, Ore. We declined as gracefully as we could. Today, we believe that we would readily accept - now that Jack has attained the rank of Captain and is doing such marvelous work in the Civil Air Patrol. There is no doubt in our minds that Jack will be beating the boys to the new games when this is all over by flying his ship to Chicago, picking them up, and bring 'em back to Portland before nightfall. All reminiscing and kidding aside, we do sincerely believe that this "Honorable Mention" is but small praise for the great work that Jack Moore is doing.

CHOOSING THE RECORDS

This past week we can report having received about the "oompteenth" letter asking us, "Whynthehell don't you include a sheet wherein a guy like you that knows the field and knows what it's all about tells us about the new records that are coming out and what you think of them as nickel getters. You're right there in New York City where the records are born and you probably know all the people that make 'em anyway. We read The Cash Box and The Confidential Price Lists and The Coin Machine Merry-Go-Round for everything we want to know - and I like your stuff - it's right down our alley - it's above the table - and, what's more, it talks in our language. What we want you to do now is sit yourself down on your fanny and phone the record makers and tell 'em to send you their new releases and review these for us and then you tell us what you think about 'em before we invest our good bucks in 'em. I believe that if you publish this you'll find that a lot of other guys in this business believe just like I do." So, all you "other guys" - do you believe like this guy does? If you do, by golly, I'll add on a little more work and give you a record review as is a record review - with no bunk attached to it.

THANKSGIVING

There's a lot to be thankful for this year, everything considered. Of course, a lot of big towns are down. A lot of small ones, too. A lot of our favorite friends are fighting Japs and Nazis and we all hope that they'll come back to us, healthy and happy and fit as a fiddle. We've made a lot of mistakes. We may even have mistreated a couple of nice guys. But, I guess we're all the more human for these human faults. In general, tho, we're still here and we're still punching, we're doing everything possible to assist the war effort, and with it all we're all doing pretty well. We like our business. We like the guys in it. Of course, there are always a few wrong guys, but, that's what helps make a nice business - and we even like them, too, or what the hell would be the use of this business? We like the action and the excitement and the speed of this business. We like the trades and the buys and the deals. We do have fun, yes, sir, the coinboys always are big sports. In fact, we personally, have a lot to be thankful for - in the birth of The Cash Box this year and the fact that all you guys pronounced it "one swell idea". All in all - we all have a helluva lot to really be thankful for this Thanksgiving. And to start the ball rolling 'round the festive board - I want to offer thanks for all of us to all of you.
